II. Pre-Reading Activities: Setting the Stage for Immortality

Before diving into the narrative, it's crucial to activate students' prior knowledge and introduce them to the core concepts that "Tuck Everlasting" will explore. These pre-reading activities are designed to build anticipation and provide a conceptual framework.

A. The Unending Question: What is a Meaningful Life?

1. Activity: "Life's Milestones" Brainstorm. Provide students with a large sheet of paper or a digital whiteboard. Ask them to brainstorm a list of significant events or experiences that define a human life (e.g., birth, learning to walk, first day of school, graduating, falling in love, having children, experiencing loss, growing old).
2. Discussion: Facilitate a class discussion around the brainstormed list. Ask: "Are all of these experiences necessary for a 'good' or 'meaningful' life? What makes life worth living? What would happen if some of these experiences were removed or extended indefinitely?" This prompts early engagement with themes of mortality and the passage of time.

B. Exploring the Concept of Time

1. Activity: "Time Capsules." Divide students into small groups. Assign each group a different historical period (e.g., the Renaissance, the Roaring Twenties, the present day). Ask them to imagine creating a time capsule that represents the essence of that era for someone in the far future. What objects, ideas, or artifacts would they include?
2. Discussion: Discuss the challenges and limitations of capturing the essence of a time. How does our perception of time change as we age? What does it mean to live "outside of time"? This activity helps students consider different perspectives on temporality, a central theme in the novel.

C. Introducing Natalie Babbitt and Her Style

1. Activity: Author Spotlight. Briefly introduce Natalie Babbitt and her literary reputation. Share a few evocative quotes from "Tuck Everlasting" (without revealing too much plot) to pique student interest in her writing style and the novel's tone. For example, "'Do not drink,' the man said.
